Free Write

1. Students write as many words as possible in 1 minute.
2. Write on the board the target number of words for the group (10 times the number of students). Students don't have to worry about spelling—just quantity and speed.
3. Give the keyword OCEAN. Say GO; time 1 minute. STOP.
4. Students count their words. Add everyone's total to get the total for the group. Did the group make the goal? Ask for volunteers to read their lists.

(Materials: Surf It! ♦ and Get The Meaning: Main Points Surf It! ♦)

Introduction

When you have a reading to do, start by thinking about the topic a bit before getting into the reading. This reading is about surfing.

Ask: Has anyone ever tried surfing? Where? What do you think surfers are like?
What is your stereotype of a surfer?

Activity

Distribute Surf It! ♦.

Tell students: The headings for each paragraph are missing. You will be filling them in later.

Have students read the article, then fill in the headings from the list "Headings" in Activity 1 of Get The Meaning: Main Points Surf It! ♦.

When finished, tell students to compare answers with a neighbor.

Discuss the answers (Answers: 1-c 2-e 3-a 4-d 5-b)

If there is time, tell students to fill in the verbs in Part 2 of the handout. Remind them that verbs are words of action or being. The "infinitive" is the basic form, for example, to run, to play, to feel, to be, to have. A "gerund" is often in the -ing form, for example, running, playing, feeling, having.

Have students compare answers. Review.

Answers: 1-catching 2-feel 3-to get (infinitive)
4-to be (infinitive) 5-to take (infinitive) 6-Meeting

SURF IT!

Surfing is one of the fastest growing sports. Ancient Polynesians used to surf. Since the 1960's, anyone and everyone can go surfing.

1. _____ For some people, surfing is more than simply a sport. Many spend their time traveling the world looking for the perfect wave. The average surfer is a laid-back type of person. They say that it is something about the art of catching waves and being outside that makes you feel very relaxed.

2. _____ Anywhere that has a coastline with big waves is home to surfers. There are a lot of Australian surfers because half of Australia's coastline is surfable. Hawaii is where the sport was invented and many surfers live there. A lot of surfers also come from California, New Zealand, and the UK.

3. _____ Get a board. Most surfers start on short boards. Long boards are only for experienced surfers catching huge waves. You also have to be a very strong swimmer.

4. _____ If you are a beginner, the big waves that fall onto the sand are best. Waves vary in size during different seasons and even at different times of the day, so watch out! Surfing can be dangerous. You need advice from someone experienced.

5. _____ Surfing is a dangerous sport if you aren't a strong swimmer. The main thing most surfers have to worry about is their own board or other surfers' boards. Great White sharks, stingrays and deadly jellyfish are also not friendly to surfers, but running into one of these is quite rare.
