TAKING TESTS

FILL-IN THE BLANK

Test-Taking Basics

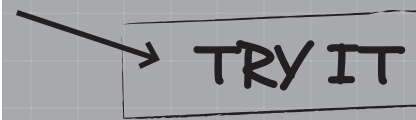

- Read directions carefully.
- Review the whole test before beginning.
- Plan your time. Figure out how much time you should spend on each question.
Count how many questions are on the test and how many points each is worth.
Spend the most time answering the questions worth the most points.
- Answer the easiest questions first.
- Review your answers.

Fill-in the blank

Fill-in the blank questions give you a statement with information missing (for example, a word, phrase, or date). The missing information is marked with a line, and you have to fill in the right answer.

Tips for fill-in the blank questions

- Read the sentence.
- Think about what kind of information is needed.
For example, is the missing information a noun (person, place, thing), verb (action), date, or place?
- Look for clues in the way the sentence is written.
Read the sentence "aloud" in your head with your answer in it. Does it sound right?
- Answer questions you are sure of first.

Before you start baking a cake, read the recipe and make sure you have all the _____.

The dog was very protective of her newborn _____ and growled when anyone came near them.

She slammed on her _____ when she realized the light had turned red.

Answers: ingredients; puppies; brakes
